

Logicpath Logistics is re-defining last-mile logistics with next-day reliability and a bold, precision-first approach. Grounded in four core cornerstones, we do what others won't and, what they do, we simply do better. With over 100 years of combined team experience in this space and a relentless focus on value-driven, performance-focused logistics, Logicpath is built to outperform.

Our proprietary tech and advanced logistics systems make shipping effortless for our partners. From seamless integration and real-time tracking to customer-selected delivery windows, SMS updates, and industry-leading Visual Proof of Delivery (VPOD), we deliver transparency, control, and confidence at every step.

AI-powered route optimization and a flexible network of trained employees and contractors ensure your packages get where they need to be on time. Within California and Texas, we serve all major metros and overlooked regions with intra-day, time-specific delivery because to us, convenience should never come with compromise.

Delivering Parcels No One Else Dares to...

Delivery on Your Customer's Schedule

Logicpath delivers when it works for your customers, not the other way:

- Flexible delivery windows, including intra-day and evening drops
- Customer-selected delivery window
- Real-time tracking and proactive SMS updates

Heavy? Oversized? Awkward?

Logicpath was built to handle what others reject:

- Delivery support for packages up to 75+ lbs.
- Trained personnel and reinforced vehicles for large-item logistics

Regulated Goods?

Compliance meets convenience

- Ready to deliver alcohol, vape products, and tobacco
- Age verification / secure handoff procedures built-in
- Fully compliant with state and local regulations

Multiple Piece Delivery?

Multipack service is:

- Designed for multiple packages shipped to a single consignee at one location on the same day
- Contractual service for customers with daily pickup.
- 50 lbs. minimum for express shipments
- 100 lbs. minimum for ground shipments

At Logicpath, we treat every delivery as a reflection of your brand, ensuring care, precision, and professionalism. Choose Logicpath Logistics for smart logistics and exceptional service.
